

Spring Production Set for April 27, 28

Children's Chorus Set to Perform

The exuberance of the Wasatch Children's Chorus will warm your heart again this spring as you attend their annual performance. This year's production will be "Robin and His Merry Men," a fun-filled, delightful musical.

Brad Thompson will direct this performance. He is a conductor with the enthusiasm and skill it takes to work with energetic children ages 7-12. The children's training, love for music, and eagerness to perform, will provide an excellent evening of entertainment for the entire family.

Elaine Hunsaker, Pres. of the organization, has worked hard to organize all efforts of advertising, costumes, finance, ticket sales, and whatever else it takes to make a successful production.

"Robin and His Merry Men" will be performed at the high school auditorium. Plan to attend an evening performance Friday, April 27, at 7:00 p.m., or a Saturday matinee April 28 at 2:00 p.m. Tickets may be purchased from chorus members or at the door.

The Wasatch Children's Choir, under the direction of Brad Thompson, will be presenting "Robin and his Merry Men," on April 27. This group of youngsters have practiced long and hard for this production.
